ENLARGED SHEET

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1885.

A Splendid Offer.

In order to increase the already very large circulation of the Los Angeles WEEKLY MIRROR, the publishers have decided to offer as a premium to each yearly subscriber who pays $2, a copy of Stevenson's map of the county of Los Angeles and parts of San Bernardino and San Diego counties. The size of this map is 23x30. It was issued this year, and is the most accurate map of this section ever published. It shows all the townships, sections, cities, towns and hamlets, rivers, creeks, mountains, harbors, large ranches, mines, railroads, including the Atlantic and Pacific and its proposed routes, and has a thousand other features of interest and value to residents of Southern California. It is alone well worth the subscription price and is the finest premium ever offered by any paper in the State. Taken in connection with the fifty-two issues of the MIRROR, an eight-page paper with over sixty long columns of reading matter of the choicest kind, it will readily be seen that this is an opportunity which rarely occurs. Avail yourselves of it. The maps will be mailed to any address on receipt of $2.

The Elections.

New York and Virginia appear to have voted for the Democrats yesterday.

In New Jersey the prospect is that the Legislature is retained by the Republicans, who will have a majority on joint ballot.

Iowa goes Republican, of course, but the returns are meager at this writing (midnight.)

The vote in Massachusetts shows a large falling off for both the Republicans and Democrats. Robinson's (R.) election as Governor is claimed by 25,000 majority.

Connecticut, Maryland and Mississippi are doubtless Democratic, but the returns are unsatisfactorily meager.

Pennsylvania is Republican, but full figures will have to be waited for.

In the Empire State the return to the fold of disaffected Democrats, who went off to Blaine and Butler last fall, appears to have been numerous enough to more than counterbalance the Independent and Mugwump vote, which is supposed to have been largely cast for Davenport.

On the whole, it was not a mighty good day for Republicans.

SINCE the Ohio Republican victory intimations have been busily thrown out by the Democratic press that Governor Foster, General Noyes, Judge Taft, or some other Republican, will contest with John Sherman for the United States Senatorship. It has also been insinuated even that Sherman may be defeated by the joint action of a very few Republicans and all the Democratic members of the General Assembly. Referring to these reports, the Ohio State Journal says: "We have advices from one of those distinguished gentlemen (Governor Foster), in which he says: 'It is over and we have won a most substantial victory in all particulars, save one. We may yet have the Senate, but we will elect the United States Senator and his name is Sherman.'"

The Journal adds: "If the Democrats expect to find a lack of harmony on account of the election of a Senator, they will be very greatly disappointed." There is no reasonable doubt about the re-election of Mr. Sherman.

THE Columbus (O.) Dispatch says: "Judge Swing states that General Grant made substantially the same statement to himself and father, the late P. B. Swing, as is given in the Depew letter, concerning the attitude of Andrew Johnson, as President, with reference to the mode of convening Congress soon after the war. All doubt is being removed, we believe, upon the point that Johnson did seriously consider the matter of making a call for members of Congress from the States then lately in rebellion, to assemble with the members of the other States, as before the war, and as they now assemble."

A COMPILATION of army statistics shows that of the total authorized force of 2177 officers in our army, 1082 served in the army prior to June 1, 1865. Every army officer above and including Lieutenant Colonels had army experience before that date. Of the Majors 213 out of 235, 475 Captains out of 617, and 194 out of 656 First Lieutenants, are likewise experienced.

THE San Francisco Post says: "In a political quarrel at Bustamente, Mexico, Saturday, six men were killed and fifteen wounded, and a pitched battle is now momentarily expected. Ohio people who feel lonesome since the close of their campaign would find recreation and have old recollections revived by a visit to Bustamente." What is the true inwardness of this observation?

CERTAIN Democratic papers are inclined to deal as gently with Andy Johnson as they dare, in discussing the revelations made by General Grant through Chauncey M. Depew. At heart most old copperheads cherish Johnson as they do Vallandigham, but they lack the courage to praise him openly.

THE collision between General Grant's reputation for veracity and Andy Johnson's reputation for good sense and loyalty, says the Cleveland Leader, has resulted in disaster to the latter. The country wonders now that the consequences of Johnson's succession to the Presidency were not vastly more harmful to the nation.

JOHNSTON'S FLUID BEEF.

A CONCENTRATED PREPARATION FOR NUTRITIOUS BEEF TEA.

This preparation is steadily gaining in popular favor, and as its merits become better known it is destined to be indispensable every other Extract of Meat in the market. In Britain, the United States and Canada it is already widely known and appreciated, and the reason is not far to seek. It has been subjected to analysis by some of the first chemists of the day and pronounced a PERFECT FOOD. Unlike other Extracts, Fluid Beef is no mere stimulant, imparting a temporary excitement, to be followed by more than corresponding depression—not a "more meat flavor," but supplying "all the nutritious elements which the meat itself contains."

Scientifically stated, the claims advanced for this Preparation, and which have been amply attested by hundreds and thousands of the most competent judges, are—

1. It is a REAL FOOD, not like other extracts a mere stimulant. Like them, it imparts strength to the system, but adds, what they have no power to supply, nourishment for brain and bone and muscle.

2. IS SO DIGESTIBLE that it can be retained and assimilated by the weakest stomach. An infant may take it with safety, and it will rest on the stomach of the invalid when nearly every other food is rejected.

3. It contains, in highly concentrated form, EVERY ELEMENT OF A PERFECT FOOD. It gives tone to the nervous system while increasing muscular development.

4. It is a GENUINE BEEF PREPARATION. In its manufacture nothing is used but the very finest parts of the meat, and every particle is guaranteed to be absolutely pure and free from all admixture. Neither alcohol nor drugs of any form is used in its preparation.

5. It can be used at any moment, and with the least possible trouble. A little boiling water, and it is ready for use in the nursery, the sick room or at the household table. Tea or coffee cannot be more readily prepared.

It is highly indorsed by the most noted medical men in the world.

THE SUPERVISORS.

They Answer the Charges of the Grand Jury.

"CULPABLE LOOSENESS" THE OTHER WAY

They Decline to Change State Laws Just at Present, and Resent Unauthorized and Impertinent Interference.

The Supervisors to the People—The report of the last Grand Jury arraigns us for "great looseness in the management of affairs and for working not in the interest of the people, but in a hap-hazard, loose manner."

So serious charges made by a body of such high authority demand a defense, which we take the first opportunity to make. The evidence offered to substantiate the charges of looseness, consists of bills alleged to have been wrongfully paid by us. Seven bills in favor of Aaron Smith, with amount, nature of services rendered and the date, excepting the year which is (accidentally?) omitted. Of those bills, the five which show the greatest evidence of overcharge were allowed in 1883 by a former Board. The other two, after being cut down to what we considered a proper amount, were allowed and paid. A bill from the Sheriff is offered in which he charges $134 for 620 miles traveled in going for a culprit, and $1452.50 for returning. Both were paid in 1884, and not during our administration. It is alleged that "in order to bring bills within contract, when 2000 receipts are actually ordered, 4000 are charged and allowed." That allegation arises from a blunder made by the committee or the clerks of the Grand Jury, and as an explanation of the matter has already been published, no further comment is necessary.

The evidence as set forth certainly shows a looseness, and a culpable looseness, on the part of those who offer it, but not against us.

Further charges and criticisms affecting us are made by the Grand Jury. It is stated that there is no record of the amount due to the county for the care of sick marines. There is such a record, and we are taking the necessary steps to collect the amount due. Compensation has been legally allowed to members of our board for time spent at a distance from their homes in examining roads and bridges. Upon this, and no other ground, the charge is made that we have illegally taken pay as Road Commissioners.

The statement that the road districts are in debt for about $15,000 is lamentably true, but no part of that debt has been created during our administration, although the condition of the roads has tempted us to spend more than the small levy of the last Board allowed us for road purposes. We are accused of subsidizing certain county offices. There are several offices which cannot be conducted for the salary fixed by law, and at least two of them would probably be vacant, if no help had been allowed them. As we have legal authority to grant such help, we have done it, and shall continue in that course so long as it seems necessary.

In regard to the appropriation for the obsequies to General Grant: We were publicly and privately advised and urged by many good citizens that such an appropriation was demanded by the people, and no person was more persistent in that direction than Mr. Cohn, then chairman of a citizens' committee, and more recently chairman of the investigating committee of the aforesaid Grand Jury.

The sending of a delegation to the State Board of Equalization is held up as an instance of our reckless extravagance. We were cited to appear before that Board, and rumors came from the north that we were threatened with a raise of 40 per cent. Leading capitalists and business men urged us to go in a body. We considered it advisable to be fully represented there, and we believe that the county derived great benefit from our action; and, further, that if our course had been different, we should have been generally censured. No member charged more than for time actually spent for the county, and for his necessary expenses during that time. We consider the advice given to us, in regard to the refunding of bonds, to be unauthorized, uncalled for, and impertinent.

We are advised to pass an ordinance requiring the Tax Collector to make weekly settlements with the Treasurer, during the collection of taxes. As we are not vested with authority to repeal a statutory enactment, we shall have to worry along under the State laws as they exist, until they are repealed or amended by the legally constituted authorities.

We have nothing further to say in regard to the charges and insinuations against us, contained in the said report, but it may be for the good of the people that we look into the acts and methods of the last Grand Jury.

That body, after finishing its criminal business, and after getting outside information in regard to the long standing defalcations of the County Recorder, appointed an investigating and working committee and employed a corps of experts. A short examination proved the defalcation of the Recorder, and thereupon, after a vigorous attempt to whitewash, by a rescission of censure and admonition, he was indicted. One of the experts, who served during the past season, as a Deputy Assessor, investigated the Assessor's office and solely on his report, the books of that office were declared to be well kept. We do not question the decision, but only the method of reaching it. Several mare's nests were discovered —alleged grave errors were dissolved by brief explanations. Ex-Tax Collector Ellis was obliged by newspaper statements, arising from the investigations, to send an agent from San Francisco to prove that his accounts were correct. It is open to censure that members of the august body called to their room two members of our Board, to urge their support of Mr. Cohn, the chairman of the investigating committee, to fill the office of Recorder made vacant by the resignation of C. E. Miles. The honorable body adjourned on the 15th of October, leaving the county files of papers in unnecessary and abominable confusion.

We have ignored, as unworthy of our notice, the unofficial statement in a Los Angeles paper, purporting to be the suppressed portions of the Grand Jury's report. We have perhaps awarded to the report more attention than it deserves. If so, the gravity of the charges and their apparent malice must be our justification.

THE OHIO UNION.

Pleasant Social and Entertainment Last Evening.

The second social meeting of the Ohio Union of Los Angeles brightened Nadeau Hall last evening, and was another pleasant occasion for transplanted Buckeyes to remember. About 200 were present, after the routine business came the short programme prepared for the occasion. An artistic piano solo, "Gnomenreigen," was given by Miss Virginia Bereman; and Mr. Edward Lange followed in a pleasing selection, on the flute, from Lucretia Borgia, and was encored. After a social interval, and considerable fruitless endeavor to secure a volunteer reader, the chairman, Colonel H. G. Otis, read the following excellent poem, written for the occasion by Mr. Albert F. Kercheval:

"THE OHIO IDEE."

Hail Buckeyes, met to jubilate, and olden scenes recall!
We bid you welcome to our midst, glad welcome, one and all!
Three welcome to Ohio's sons and daughters who may roam,
And linger on our golden shores far from their childhood's home.
What matter where their footsteps pause beside our western sea,
The truest welcome hearts may give, and greeting tender, we!

We have an "idee" merit is of greater worth than gold,
And virtue better than a mine of treasured wealth untold,
That man's a man, or whether clad in purple raiment fine,
Or task-bestirred, or smoke begrimed with toil in mill and mine,
And woman ever woman still, though stained with toil her hand—
The equal of her sister clothed in silks and satins grand.
And that her sons all countries through, the boldest, bravest are,
Her daughters truest of the true, and fairest of the fair.

The Buckeye always leads the van, and That all mankind his brethren are, at least They ought to be.
That all are equal in this land—our land—the Golden West.
But it's a difference exists, the Buckeye is the best.
That all the offices of trust are his by right to gain,
With all the little perquisites thereto that appertain;
Likewise the Buckeye deems it is a duty very dear,
To not get left outside to face the chilly atmosphere;
And when it rains and moisture drips from out the weeping sky,
To step inside and try to keep his epidermis dry.

So be it, if a fault it is, when all is said and done,
He feels it's quite incumbent to look out for Number One.
Let Phillistines deride and scoff at Ohio's "idee"
